Our Holidays Your Way

Hola!

When you do a job you love, the years seem to fly by.

It only seems like yesterday that my Father and I started our small Travel Agency business in 1984 selling flights and holidays to Italy.

In 2006, using all our contacts and local knowledge gained over the years, Typically Italian Holidays was born. Our mission was to sell authentic holidays using family run hotels that offer great, traditional service and treating our customers as friends and not just guests.

After 8 years of Typically Italian our valued Travel Agents wanted us to offer the same authentic experience in Spain, so using local guides and Tourist Boards I visited Spain with my team and Typically Spain was born.

To this day and at the age of 88 my Father still comes into the office on most days and we discuss how we can help you make the most of your Spanish Holiday with authentic experiences like Tapas Tours, Wine Tasting, Walking tours and cookery experiences. We want you to enjoy our holidays, your way in 2017

Because we want you to have the best advice and service our holidays can only be booked through a travel agent so when you are ready to book please call or speak to the travel agent who supplied this brochure and I'm sure they will be delighted to help you create your perfect Spanish Holiday.

Local representatives and agents

As this is a tailor made program for seasoned travellers we have no local representatives. We have local agents in Spain who can give any necessary help and guidance and can always be contacted. You will not be visited in your accommodation. Please remember that wherever you are, most of the hotel managers, owners and receptionists are often keen to help you with local information. Any problem you experience must be reported locally so that we are given the opportunity of solving them. If you cannot reach our local agent then do not hesitate to contact our 24/7 emergency number.

Our Prices

As all our holidays are tailor made, we have adopted a flexible pricing policy based on individual airline fares which now, as a result of changing airline industry, fluctuate on a regular basis.

We have shown a range of indicative prices for our featured accommodation and will quote the accurate price on application. This price will reflect the latest prices and any offers from hotels.

Let's fly...

There is an extensive range of services to Spain from more than 20 UK airports, with flights ranging from as little as two hours. Ryanair, EasyJet, Monarch, Flybe and Jet2 have the highest frequencies, concentrating on the beach resorts of the Costas. Easyjet and Ryanair also operate to many of the cities and are joined by Iberia and British Airways.

Let's drive...

A drive to Spain can either be a leisurely trip taking several days, or it is perfectly possible to reach Northern Spain in a day from the Western Channel Ports. The route you take largely depends on your final destination, as well as your departure point in the UK.

Spanish rail...

Travel by rail in Spain is an easy and comfortable option, thanks to the rail network throughout the country.

Please note Spanish trains are not bookable until 90 days prior to departure.

It's easy to travel from the UK to Spain by train, a morning Eurostar to Paris takes just 2½ hours, then in the afternoon double-deck TGV Duplex to Figueres (home of the amazing Salvador Dali museum), Girona and Barcelona. To anyone who has only known the stresses of airports, flights & motorways, chilling out on a high-speed train is a revelation ... it's far more environmentally-friendly, too.

What is a Parador?

The majority of Paradors are set in buildings of historical significance such as castles, palaces, convents, monasteries, fortresses and hospitals, all painstakingly restored and converted into hotels that meet and exceed the demanding requirements of travellers in the 21st century. However, a sizeable number of Paradors are country houses and contemporary hotels, set in tremendous landscapes inland in the mountains and on the coastlines, also with their own style and character.

In 1928 'Paradores de Turismo' was launched with the opening of the Parador de Gredos. Today this Parador still stands as the emblem of the Parador's concept, complemented by 93 other prestigious sites located strategically across the country in superb settings to facilitate tourism to every corner of Spain.

Today Paradors are proudly and fondly regarded by Spanish and International guests as remarkable places to stay and a true experience of Spanish hospitality and cuisine.

Andalusia

Andalusia is probably one of the best known parts of Spain for holidaymakers, famous for its sandy beaches, year round sunshine and its cosmopolitan Costa del Sol. However, the landscape is also the most varied of any region in Spain and you can do practically everything from windsurfing on the windy Atlantic coast to skiing in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Once one of Spain's poorest regions, Andalusia now has an excellent infrastructure, with good roads, telephone lines (for those who can't leave the laptop at home!) and a good public transport system between main towns. Service in the bars and restaurants is excellent and off the beaten track you will find some of the friendliest people in Spain, where astoundingly not speaking each other's language is never a problem.

Córdoba

The walls of the Mezquita dominate Córdoba, while the cobbled alleyways in the old Jewish and Muslim quarters, flanked by overflowing pots of geraniums, are a delight to explore.

The main reason to visit Córdoba is to see its spectacular mosque. Then, take a walk through the atmospheric streets of the Judería, stopping en route in a bustling bar for tapas. The Museo Arqueológico contains important finds from the local area and the Museo Provincial de Bellas Artes has works by Murillo, Zurbarán and Goya. The Moorish Alcázar has an impressive evening sound and light show in summer. And don't leave without taking to the waters in the Hammam Baños Arabes.

Granada

The Moors made Granada the grandest city in Andalusia in the 14th century. Their magnificent Alhambra Palace remains one of Spain's most popular monuments, keeping Granada firmly on the tourist trail. On the opposite hill to the Alhambra is the Albaicín, the oldest part of town, with narrow streets, Arab tearooms and great views, while back in the centre, the Capilla Real is the burial place of the Catholic Monarchs King Ferdinand and Queen Isabel. Granada is forever associated with the writer Federico García Lorca, who was born in the village of Fuente Vaqueros.

Cádiz

Cádiz stands on a peninsula jutting out into a bay and is almost entirely surrounded by water. Named Gadir by the Phoenicians, who founded their trading post in 1100 BC, it was later controlled by the Carthaginians, until it became a thriving Roman port. The old city looks quite Moorish in appearance and is intriguing with narrow cobbled streets opening onto small squares. The golden cupola of the cathedral looms high above long white houses and the whole place has a historic air. It just takes an hour to walk around the headlands where you can visit the entire old town and pass through some lovely parks with sweeping views of the bay.

Jerez de la Frontera

Jerez de la Frontera, well known for its wines, its horses and its flamenco, preserves a historic centre that has been declared a historic artistic site. One of the noblest towns in Cádiz brings together the splendour of aristocratic palaces with the popular flavour of typically Andalusian houses. Features that are shown off every year at the celebration of the Horse Fair, declared of International Tourist Interest. A visit to one of the city's wine cellars will help travellers to get a deeper understanding of its winemaking tradition.

Ronda

This town in the Málaga region sits on either side of the Tajo del Ronda, a narrow gorge more than 150 metres deep. Its old town has been declared Property of Cultural Interest. Celts, Phoenicians, Romans and Arabs all inhabited these lands, which were re-conquered by the Catholic Monarchs. The historic quarter, reminiscent of the Arab age and with a medieval layout is scattered to the south of the Guadalevín, while more modern Ronda, the part which sprang up after the 16th century, unfolds to the north of the course of this river. Several bridges unite the two halves of one of the most interesting towns on the route of the Whitewashed Villages, in the heart of the Ronda hills, only a few kilometres from the Costa del Sol.

Almunecar

Almuñécar is an attractive coastal resort town that is particularly popular in the summer with Spanish holiday makers. The interesting seafront promenade is divided into many sections by the small coves and headlands that are typical of this part of the Costa Tropical. There are also several longer beaches, all with great facilities making them perfect for families.

But Almuñécar also has a long history, going back to the year 800 BC, a date when it was founded by the Phoenicians as a trading colony. From this period you can visit a necropolis and a salting works.

Chiclana de la Frontera

Just inland from the coast Chiclana sits on a small hill overlooking the marismas (salt marshes). The town dates from 1303, when King Fernando IV of Castille gave the land to Guzman El Bueno, the defender of Tarifa, who was succeeded by the Duques de Medina Sidonia.

Novo Sancti Petri, a new seaside residential development on the coast just to the south-west of Chiclana, has become the town's summer resort.

Nearby there are two beaches: Playa de Sancti Petri and Playa de la

Barrosa, both of which have been awarded a blue flag by the European Union for their high standards of cleanliness and excellent facilities.

Conil de la Frontera

Conil de la Frontera is one of the more popular holiday destinations on the Costa de la Luz.

Located to the south-east of the province of Cadiz, this is a rich and natural fishing-shore, whose greatest appeal lies on its vast, white beaches, and its cliffs. Conil de la Frontera's main industries are fishing and tourism. Its origins date back to the Recon quest, and from its monumental heritage we must point out the Tower of Guzmán, a military fortress from the 14th century; the Baroque church of Misericordia, from the 18th century; and the church of Santa Catalina, rebuilt in the 19th century. In recent years the town has experienced a boom in the tourist industry, thanks to its magnificent beaches.

Rota

Rota, an ancient town, situated in a privileged position at the extreme north of the Bay of Cádiz.

The town opens out to the Atlantic Sea and coastline, with two national parks behind: the Natural Park of the Bay of Cádiz and the Doñana.

The old town inside its ramparts has almost a medieval atmosphere.

Rota is not a major tourist centre but it does boast some very fine beaches. In all there are sixteen kilometres of beach. The major beaches are the Playa de la Costilla, Rompidillo, Playa de la Ballena and Punta Candor. The Playa de la Costilla and Punta Candor have both been awarded blue flags by the European Union for their high standards of cleanliness and facilities.

Also being on the Atlantic coast Rota is a good venue for windsurfers.

Mojacar

The Moorish old town of Mojacar is perched high on a hill looking down on 17kms of unspoilt beaches. From a distance the town looks like a traditional Andalusian sugar cube village clinging to the sides of the hilltop.

Sandwiched between the mountains of the Sierra Cabrera and the crystal clear waters of the Mediterranean, Mojacar is the largest and most popular tourist centre of this south-eastern corner of Spain.

The captivating town has whitewashed ancient buildings and is a labyrinth of winding cobbled streets, alleys and romantic courtyards. The old town affords magnificent views to the mountains, sea and Taberna desert.

Mojacar Playa situated below the ancient village provides a completely different atmosphere; a modern lively resort town which has been tastefully developed in keeping with the traditional feel of the area, boasting 9 kilometres of sandy beaches and great facilities – restaurants, traditional bars, shops, villas and apartments line the seafront.

Nerja

Sheltered by the impressive Sierra Almajara mountain range, this once sleepy fishing village is now one of the most popular tourist resorts along the coast, with a population of over 12,000.

One of the town's most impressive attractions is the Balcón de Europa (the Balcony of Europe), a wonderful promenade, stretching along the edge of a soaring cliff top, which was once the location of a Moorish castle. The platform has spectacular panoramic views of the Mediterranean coastline, with its backdrop of mountains.

The deep Andalusian culture that the town exudes, perfect climate and cosmopolitan atmosphere, has made Nerja one of the most attractive holiday hotspots on the Costa del Sol.

Nerja has more than its fair share of fabulous beaches, boasting 16 kilometres of beaches with powdery sand and sparkling clear and calm water, and a splattering of small coves.

There are many things to see, with over 12 museums, 10 buildings of interest, 4 noteworthy churches and a whole host of monuments not to mention the archaeological sites.

There are narrow characterful streets to explore in the old town or relax at one of the bars, cafes and restaurants on the waterfront. A cruise ship may even be visiting, as Cartagena's port is the third deepest in the world.

Cala Cortina is Cartagena's urban beach, a wonderful Mediterranean cove with children's play area, seafront promenade, restaurant, loungers and sunshades.

It is located in eastern Spain, in the centre of the Region of Valencia and on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea. The capital is the city of Valencia, which is also the regional capital. Its rich artistic and historic heritage includes particularly the Silk Exchange, with the World Heritage designation, and the ground-breaking City of Arts and Sciences. The city is also the scene of the spectacular Fallas midsummer bonfire festival, declared a Festivity of International Tourist Interest. This same distinction has been awarded to another of the festivities in the province, the Tomatina tomato battle in Buñol. Also recommended are a visit to the attractions of the towns of Cullera, Gandía, Requena, Sagunto and Xàtiva. Its natural attractions include over 100 kilometres of coastline, with beaches with fine golden sand. It has two nature reserves and numerous spaces for enjoying sports in the open air; the districts of Los Serranos and El Rincón de Ademuz are of particular interest. The local gastronomy is best known for rice dishes such as paella, and other typical products are horchata (tiger nut milk) and water from Valencia.

Moraira

Moraira is one of the towns that make up Teulada-Moraira, 80 kilometres from Alicante. It is a traditional fishing harbour, at the centre of 8 kilometres of coastline, with fine white sand beaches such as Portet or L'Ampolla, and small coves like Andragó or Cap Blanc. For a large part of the year, its Mediterranean waters are excellent for sports such as sailing and scuba diving, thanks to its special microclimate: the average year-round temperature here is 18°C.

Moraira is an ideal destination for hiking enthusiasts, offering a range of signposted tracks and trails, such as those of Font Santa, Benimarco, Castellons, and Cap d' Or, with beautiful views out over the bay.

Alcoceber

Alcoceber on the Costa del Azahar is sandwiched between the Mediterranean Sea and the Sierra de Irta mountain range. The town is laid out below the Sierra de Irta, enjoying 10 kilometres of beach and sand dunes. It's a beautiful place to visit. The nature reserve of Sierra de Irta is an excellent location for ramblers who are rewarded with spectacular views and scenery. There are 10 kilometres of coastline to enjoy in the area around Alcoceber. Las Fuentes beach is the most visited and aptly named, Las Fuentes (The Source), as it is where fresh water emerges and joins the sea. At the Carregador and Romana beaches you will find sand dunes covering an area of 6,000 m<sup>2</sup>. There are numerous other coves and beaches and plenty of areas to explore along the coastline.

As with the vast majority of Spanish coastal towns and cities, a healthy Mediterranean seafood and fish menu is the main diet of the area. Predominantly served with rice the fruits of the sea served in Alcoceber are particularly fresh and delicious. The town also, due largely to Arabic influence, has a strong tradition of producing confectionery.

Alicante

Alicante is centrally located on Spain's Mediterranean coast. There is nothing as pleasant as strolling along the quayside promenade lined by four rows of palms, tessellated with marble in Alicante red, cream and black in imitation of the waves of the Mediterranean.

Alicante looks towards the sea, and does so from its famous Paseo de la Explanada, one of the most beautiful seafront promenades in Spain.

The mild Alicante climate makes beach-life accessible practically all year round, and there are plenty of fantastic beaches to choose from: La Playa de San Juan, with seven kilometres of golden sand flanked by a road enabling you to stop wherever you want. La Albufereta, an intimate, residential stretch of sand, protected by the headland of the Serra Grossa, El Postiguat located almost within the city itself, at the foot of the Benacantil mountain, next to the port and Los Saladares, lying south of the city, in the area known as Agua Amarga.

Altea

Altea is without doubt one of the most charming towns to be found on Spain's 'White Coast', located in the region of Alicante on the Costa Blanca. The town is just 11 kilometres north of Benidorm, yet the two resorts are worlds apart. Altea is similar to other Costa Blanca towns in that it has a new and an old neighbourhood. The old section is perched on top of a hill from where you will find really spectacular views.

All in all Altea is a pretty town, popular with both holidaymakers and those fortunate enough to be able to live in the area.

Altea has excellent amenities; however, if you want all-night discos and bright city lights on your holiday, give Altea a miss. This town is a holiday haven for the more discerning tourist who will be captivated by its medieval cobbled streets, its picture book old quarter and the delights of its palm-fringed seafront promenade.

The ascent to the old section along steep slopes and stepped streets reveals a broad horizon at every turn and extends along the entire La Marina region.

Calpe

Calpe has a wonderful mixture of old Valencian culture and modern tourist facilities. It is a great base from which to explore the local area or enjoy the many local beaches. Calpe alone has three of the most beautiful sandy beaches on the coast. Calpe is dominated by the towering rock of Ifach which reaches an impressive 332m, rising almost sheer above the sea and is a nature reserve.

When it comes to sightseeing, the ancient town centre, next to the Moorish quarter is a good place to start. The old town walls and the church known as Iglesia Vieja are well worth visiting. This church is the only remaining example of Mudejar-Gothic architecture within Valencia.

Peníscola

Peníscola or Peñíscola often referred to as the Gibraltar of Valencia lies in the province of Castellon on the Mediterranean Sea. It is a fortified seaport built on a rocky headland attached to the mainland and rest of the town by a narrow strip of land.

The name Peníscola derives from the Latin peninsular or peninsula.

Peníscola has sumptuous beaches, the finest of which is the north beach, which is around 5 kilometres long. This calm beach is perfect for swimming and sunbathing and is fully serviced by lifeguards and leisure activities such as volleyball, sailing and canoeing as well as being wheelchair friendly.

Villajoyosa

Located at the northern end of the Costa Blanca in the Alicante province, Villajoyosa (La Villa Joiosa) is the capital of the Marina Baixa district. A delightful and historic town, it stretches the length of a lovely wide, sandy beach, with pretty coloured fishing houses running along the seafront and is encompassed with a backdrop of mountains.

Villajoyosa is set at the mouth of a river, which sweeps into the Mediterranean Sea. Three kilometres of wide, golden, sandy beaches form part of the local coastline. The local beaches are popular with water sports enthusiasts and there are good facilities on the beach.

Castile La Mancha

This is a land famous for its arts and crafts, for the unique monuments to be seen in its towns and cities, and for being the setting for the adventures of the famous literary hero Don Quixote of La Mancha. Any trip to this area in inland Spain should definitely include a visit to its World Heritage cities such as Cuenca with its famous Hanging Houses, and Toledo with its cathedral and Alcázar fortress. If you like culture and history, you're bound to enjoy its four Archaeological Parks, some of the oldest examples of rock art in Spain, and events such as the International Classical Theatre Festival in Almagro. And if you opt to explore its natural landscapes, you should bear in mind that Castile La Mancha is one of the territories in Europe with the largest number of officially designated nature reserves, nature areas and national parks, including particularly the Tablas de Daimiel and Cabañeros. You'll love them.

Alcalá De Henares

This town near Madrid, birthplace of the illustrious Miguel de Cervantes, author of “Don Quixote”, and home to one of the most prestigious universities in Spain, has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Its rich monumental heritage, formed by churches, convents and university buildings, gives us a glimpse of life in Castilia during the Spanish Golden Age. Its historic quarter also has the “Hostería del Estudiante” Inn, which is part of the network of Paradores de Turismo. Walls with four hundred years of history make the perfect place to sample the best of the local gastronomy.

Toledo

Toledo is one of the Spanish cities with the greatest wealth of monuments. Known as the “city of the three cultures”, because Christians, Arabs and Jews lived together there for centuries, behind its walls Toledo preserves an artistic and cultural legacy in the form of churches, palaces, fortresses, mosques and synagogues. This great diversity of artistic styles makes the old quarter of the capital of Castile - La Mancha a real open-air museum, which has led to it being declared a World Heritage Site.

Cuenca

In the Region of Castile-La Mancha, between the Júcar and Huécar river canyons, you will find this city with the UNESCO World Heritage designation for its wealth of monuments. Its historic centre looks out over rocky canyon walls in the heart of the Cuenca Mountains. The Cathedral, Casas Colgadas (Hanging Houses) and cobbled streets charm the most hardened traveller. A former Dominican convent houses the Cuenca Parador Hotel, where guests can rest and enjoy the region’s most traditional recipes. One of the best times for visiting the city is during the Religious Music Week, a festival of International Tourist Interest. Art, history, adventure sports, spas and hunting are some of the opportunities offered by this province in Castilla-La Mancha.

Aranjuez

An old quarter which is a Historic-Artistic Site, royal palaces, and gardens on the banks of the Tagus form the layout of Aranjuez. It was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2001.

The Strawberry Train and the festival to commemorate the Revolt of Aranjuez, of National Tourist Interest, are some of the cultural musts awaiting the visitor to this town in the Madrid region.

Galicia in north-west Spain is a land of mysteries and surprises. So with its fascinating cultural tapestry, extraordinary natural beauty and landscapes, remarkable Celtic heritage and Roman legacy it is one of the wonders of the world to get to know, discover and experience! Pilgrims from all over the world converge on Santiago de Compostela which is a majestic and ancient capital situated in the heart of Galicia.

Santiago de Compostela

Discover Santiago de Compostela, the capital of the Region of Galicia. Millions of people from all over the world come to this city every year, many of them reaching the end of the Way of Saint James pilgrimage route. Its historic centre has been designated a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. This is not the only reason to come, however. The Galician capital is synonymous with the Camino, an ancient pilgrimage route, born in the 9th century, that has linked the city with the rest of Europe ever since. Every year many thousands of pilgrims set out on foot, by bike, or even on horseback, to live this experience that combines adventure and spirituality. The final goal is the Cathedral in Santiago, one of the sacred cities of Christendom.

Padron

Traditionally, this town's history is linked to that of the apostle Santiago (St. James).

Situated just 22 kilometres from Santiago de Compostela, this town's origins are linked to Iría Flavia. This was the Roman city to which the apostle Santiago's remains were brought from Jerusalem. Its countryside, gastronomy and historic heritage are the main attractions for tourists, although the town is perhaps best known as the home of two important writers: poet Rosalía de Castro and Nobel literature prize winner, Camilo José Cela. In fact, in this town you will find the Rosalía de Castro House-Museum and the Camilo José Cela Foundation.

Pontevedra

Pontevedra, a city with a long maritime and trading tradition, boasts one of the largest and most elegant historic quarters in the whole of Galicia. Situated on the edge of the estuary of the same name, the old town extends in a network of streets and squares and contains major civic and religious buildings.

Ourense

Stretching out on the banks of the river Miño is the city of Ourense, which maintains its traditional link to the river through its Roman Bridge. A crossroads, the Old City preserves major historic sites, outstanding among which is the Cathedral.

Mondariz

Mondariz is a small but beautiful, traditional Galician Spa village in a wonderful setting surrounded by mountains and dense woodland. The Balneario de Mondariz is probably one of the best and oldest spas in Galicia and well known throughout the world for the restorative and healing properties of its underground thermal springs.

Mondariz is also renowned for its championship golf course which is located on the outskirts of the town close to the road to Vigo, a few minutes from Mondariz Spa. If there's such a thing as the perfect combination of culture, nature and gastronomy, then you'll find it in Asturias. The first thing to catch your attention when you travel to this region, in what is known as Green Spain, is its spectacular scenery. This can be seen in places such as the Picos de Europa National Park and at one of its most legendary sites: the lakes of Covadonga. As well as the mountains, you'll be able to enjoy beautiful beaches in holiday resorts such as Llanes, Ribadesella, Gijón and Cudillero. These magnificent settings are ideal for contemplating from any of the numerous viewing points or for enjoying a range of water sports such as surfing. Gastronomy in Asturias is synonymous with a total dedication to the cult of good food. Cabrales cheese, the typical Asturian bean stew known as "fabada", cider made from local apples ... there are a whole host of typical dishes and products that are guaranteed to leave visitors with a delicious aftertaste. Its cultural attractions include a range of important monuments in Oviedo and in the Kingdom of Asturias (the delightful churches of Santa María del Naranco, San Miguel de Lillo and San Julián de los Prados, for example) which have been declared World Heritage sites by the UNESCO, as well as the various archaeological sites, caves and museums of rock art to be found throughout the area, featuring spectacular paintings and engravings dating from as long ago as 25,000 years BC.

Aviles

It is situated on the central strip of the coastline of Asturias, to the west of the cape of Peñas. An old seafaring and farming town, it is now a modern city and a major iron and steel centre, a product of demographic growth and the industrial boom. Avilés is the third major city in the Principality of Asturias. Its historic quarter has been declared a Historic-Artistic Site, since it houses significant gems of civil and religious architecture. Some of the main attractions are the pedestrian streets of Galiana and Rivero, Plaza de España with its City Hall, the old church of Sabugo, from the 13th century, and the modern Santo Tomás de Canterbury.

Gijón

On the shores of the Cantabrian Sea, Gijón offers an attractive combination of maritime tradition, monumental heritage and modern urban planning right on the seashore. Its marina is a testament to its close links with the sea throughout its history. It was short listed in the European Commission's EDEN programme (European Destinations of Excellence), in recognition of its sustainable tourism proposal. Its various major constructions date from the city's past as a Roman settlement, from its development in the 16th century when the Catholic monarchs decided to install a port here, and from the boom enjoyed by the area at the time of the Enlightenment, primarily thanks to Gaspar Melchor de Jovellanos.

Oviedo

The former Ovetum has been closely linked to the Asturian monarchy since its foundation (8th century), and even became the capital of the Kingdom. This fact has left an unquestionable medieval flavour in the historic quarter, which in modern times has been given a carefully-considered urban layout which is easy to move around. An exceptional starting point to approach examples of pre-Romanesque art with World Heritage status, the coastline of the Costa Verde, incredible natural landscapes for all kinds of sports and, of course, a first-class gastronomic culture.

Ribadesella

The distinctive feature of the urban layout of Ribadesella is the bridge that divides the fishing port in two, and which every first Saturday in August is the finishing line in most Asturias' most emblematic festival:

the canoe descent of the Sella River. Its historic quarter has been declared Property of Cultural Interest. The historic town of Ribadesella was founded by King Alfonso X the Wise in the 13th century. It offers visitors an interesting mix of medieval town and Modernist architecture in addition to an outstanding beach area. The town has two clearly distinct parts: the east side with the old part of the city, and the west side, home of the Tito Bustillo cave, one of the treasures of European cave art.

Castile y Leon is the magical “land of the castles” – a land which gave birth to Castilian and the Spanish language, the legendary hero El Cid and Saint Teresa of Ávila.

It's a place where ancient history, myth and legend have become so interwoven over the centuries that it's sometimes hard to separate the facts from the fairytales.

It's a fact that Walt Disney used Segovia's fairytale Moorish fortress as the inspiration for his famous Sleeping Beauty castle. And it's also a fact that the region is home to a province which boasts more medieval castles than anywhere else in Europe. Names such as Segovia and Salamanca are enough in themselves to fire the imagination and these extraordinarily beautiful cities generally surpass the expectations of first time visitors. Together with Ávila, these cities have earned World Heritage status along with the Santiago Way – the famous pilgrims' trail which traverses Castile y Leon en route to the Galician capital of Santiago de Compostela.

Salamanca

Salamanca is in the central area of Spain, 212 kilometres from the capital, Madrid. Universal, magnificent, wise, young and golden: this city is an inland destination well worth discovering for many reasons. Its historic centre has been designated a World Heritage Site by the UNESCO. This city saw the production of the first Grammar of the Castilian Language in the 15th century, which became a fundamental instrument for its expansion throughout the world. It is also a favourite destination amongst foreign students wanting to learn Spanish. As you would expect, Salamanca is one of the most important stages on the Route of the Spanish Language.

Ávila

Sheltered by the Sierra Gredos Mountains we find Ávila, a World Heritage City. Behind the city walls of this Castile-Leon capital there is a valuable set of churches and Renaissance palaces that bear witness to the past wealth of the town as a textile centre. Being the birthplace of Saint Teresa of Jesus has left its mark across the city, both inside and outside the city walls, with a large number of religious buildings linked to the saint's life. The European Commission has given Ávila the Access City Award 2010. The excellent roasts and famous Ávila veal cutlet are just part of a rich local cuisine without forgetting the famous dessert of Saint Teresa - “yemas” (sugared egg yolks).

Segovia

Segovia, the old quarters of which, along with its Roman aqueduct, are World Heritage Sites, lies on high ground between the Eresma and Clamores Rivers. In addition to its famous aqueduct, numerous Romanesque churches, the Cathedral and Fortress go to form this magnificent landscape that presides over this part of Castile. Its modern Parador Hotel is one of the best places for the visitor to savour the city's most traditional dish: roast suckling pig. Moreover, Segovia is an excellent starting point to tour the province and visit to the La Granja Palace, as well as the Gorges of the Duratón River Nature Reserve, among other attractions.

Leon

The Pulchra Leonina, the Sistine Chapel of Spanish Romanesque architecture and the old Hospital de San Marcos are the key points of this former Roman encampment. Over the course of time, León became the capital of the kingdom in the Middle Ages, a historic enclave on the Pilgrim's Road to Santiago de Compostela and a city perfectly suited to its inhabitants. The incredible natural landscape of this province will take us to the Picos de Europa National Park, the area of Las Médulas (a World Heritage Site) and the winter resort of San Isidro.

Valladolid

The historic centre of Valladolid, the city on the Pisuerga River, is home to an interesting collection of Renaissance architecture comprising houses, palaces and emblematic buildings such as the Cathedral, the College of San Gregorio (today the site of the National Sculpture Museum) and the church of San Pablo. The city has an intense cultural schedule thanks to its status as a university town, and hosts events such as the Seminci, the International Film Festival and one of the highlights of the Spanish film calendar, and the International Street Theatre and Arts Festival.

Burgos

Burgos is situated in the Pilgrim's Road to Santiago de Compostela; it still preserves important vestiges of its medieval splendour. Aside from a visit to the historic quarter, you can take a quite interesting walk along the banks of the Duero and Arlanza rivers. Great places to approach a delicious, varied cuisine.

But beyond all doubt, the architectural masterpiece of Burgos is the cathedral, declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Erected on top a Romanesque temple, the cathedral was built following a Norman French Gothic model.

The Basque capital has a medieval city centre, in which it is possible to find countless places of great traditional flavour, such as Plaza de la Virgen Blanca (White Virgin Square) and historic buildings like the cathedral of Santa María. # Navarra

Navarra

TO BOOK CONTACT MALVERN WORLD TRAVEL ON 01684 562406 or email malvernworldtravel@hotmail.co.uk

The medieval kingdom of Navarra has an abundance of monuments and its capital, Pamplona, hosts the world-renowned San Fermín fiesta. Navarra is a land of diversity, from the Pyrenees, to the flat arid lands of 'La Ribera' in the South.

The Pilgrim's Way passes through Navarra, starting at the legendary site of Roncesvalles in the north and ending at the noble town of Vianna in the south west.

The world famous Fiesta de San Fermin begins on the 7 July every year. The early morning encierros (running of the bulls) are a prelude to the afternoon corridas (bullfights), this fiesta has many planned surprises, including a huge fireworks display every night – and many impromptu ones.

This region has a varied gastronomy; exquisite meats, tasty vegetables from the market gardens of La Ribera are accompanied by the excellent wines of the area.

In Navarra, culture and nature merge. Roman towns, Romanesque churches, gothic monasteries and cathedrals, medieval towers and walls make up the history of this Kingdom.

Pamplona

On the fertile plain of the river Arga sits Pamplona, a city full of history and deep-rooted traditions. The streets and squares of its historic quarter still preserve a significant collection of monumental buildings dominated by its churches and medieval walls.

Pamplona is a city in which tradition and modernity live in harmony. A visit to Pamplona, capital of the Navarre region, should begin in the "hamlets", group of districts of medieval origin representing the seed from which today's city grew. In the centrally located Plaza Consistorial square stands the majestic Baroque façade of the Town Hall.

Olite

It is a Historic-Artistic Site where traces of a Roman and Gothic presence can be found in its walled enclosure and in the splendour of the medieval court of Carlos III in its castle palace. It has two medieval churches: Santa María, Gothic from the 13th century and which has a beautiful façade and a magnificent reredos, is situated partly inside the palace, where it was once the chapel; and San Pedro, the oldest in Olite, with a Romanesque façade and cloister.

Roncesvalles

In the northeast of the Navarre region and 47km from Pamplona is Roncesvalles, the point of departure for modern pilgrims on the road to Santiago de Compostela. A centre of religion and monuments, prominent among the historic-artistic heritage of Roncesvalles is the collegiate church, in which its magnificent church and the image of the Virgin, both in the Gothic style, are outstanding; the church of Santiago, which is also Gothic, and the Espíritu Santo, which is Romanesque, as well as its interesting museum and the old hospital of Itzandegia.

Catalonia

Covering the area from the Pyrenees in the north to the Mediterranean in the east and the Ebro valley in the southwest, Catalonia offers diverse scenery and attractions.

Catalonia is arguably the region of Spain with the strongest identity. The area is best known for three things: the ski resorts of the Pyrenees, the holiday resorts of the Costa Brava and Costa Dorada and the painter Salvador Dalí, who lived in Portlligat and whose work can be seen at the Teatre-Museu Dalí in Figueres. The charming city of Girona is home to the former world's best restaurant, El Cellar de Can Roca. Tarragona is noted for its Roman remains while Port Aventura is one of the largest theme parks in Europe. Montserrat is one of Spain's most spiritual sites.

Girona

The so-called "City of the Four Rivers", shows us a historic centre dominated by medieval buildings and reminders of Romans, Arabs and Jews. Inside the walled enclosure of "La Força Vella" you can find the culminating works of its historical destiny. The town's excellent position between the Pyrenean chain and the Costa Brava makes a multitude of trips possible, for example, to natural areas which are worthy of mention. Everywhere, the traveller will have the opportunity to try the regional cuisine which brings together in its recipes products of the sea and the mountains.

Begur

In the southern coast of Baix Empordà we find the town of Begur. In this sector of Costa Brava, mountains dive into the Mediterranean sea, forming small coves and sandy beaches among rocky cliffs. Pine forests go all the way to the shore, surrounding the town of Begur, which is only a few kilometres away from the sea. The historic quarter, a very traditional, colourful place, is dominated by the ruins of an austere castle built on rocks, which dates from the 15th century. The ancient fishing quarters, by the beach, have become important residential and tourist areas, these include Aiguablava. A number of small secluded beaches can be found within 5 minutes drive.

Cambrils

Cambrils is a seafaring village where life revolves around the harbour, in which the most prominent feature is an old defence tower. The town has an area of detached houses sheltering below a castle. It is the old fortress of the Baron of Vilafortuny, which nowadays is a holiday centre. Before crossing the promenade, near the sea, there is a signal tower known as the Telégrafo de l'Esquirol, which in times gone by was used to establish communication with other parts of the coast by means of flags and lights. From the harbour, a path which follows the Garbí watercourse leads inland into town. It is worth stopping at the sanctuary of El Camí, with a crypt and an adjoining watchtower.

Sant Antoni de Calonge

Calonge is situated on the Costa Brava, and has two main areas: Calonge, inland, and Sant Antoni, by the sea. Outstanding in the town are its Medieval castle (12th-13th centuries), Sant Martí Church and Càlcul Street. It dates back to prehistoric times, as can be seen from the dolmens and menhirs in the area. The Roman village of Castel Barri is also important. It is one of the largest archaeological sites from the Roman period. Work began on the castle in the 8th century and it is one of the largest fortresses in the region. The castle, along with the Lloreta and Valentina Towers, are especially outstanding buildings.

There are also many walks you can do around the town, while the good climate and coastal winds make water sports possible all year round at its beaches and hidden coves. Prawns are the town's most characteristic dish, and should be tried without fail.

Sitges

Located between the sea and the mountains, the city of Sitges (which belongs to Barcelona) offers a wide variety of leisure activities to visitors. The Coast of Garraf, on the Mediterranean Sea and the surrounding mountains, provide a beautiful natural setting to this town.

The interesting historic quarter, with an extensive cultural calendar, complements the luxury compounds, golf courses and marinas right next to the beach. The cuisine from Sitges gathers the most representative Catalan dishes and creates exquisite recipes like "xató".

Blanes

Once a small fishing town, Blanes still retains some of its original charm; the resort boasts a four-kilometre stretch of coastline with wide sandy bays and small rocky coves, most of which are well served with water sports and other tourist facilities.

Moving away from the seafront you'll find evidence of a town steeped in history, with ancient monuments, churches and buildings still standing as reminders of Blanes' colourful past. The medieval castle of Sant Joan still looks down on the town as it has done since the 13th century.

The beaches are the main attraction for the vast majority of tourists to Blanes; the sandy beaches and coves, with the incredible backdrop of mountain scenery, make this a perfect beach holiday location. There is a promenade running the full length of the 4km beach strip with many terraces, restaurants and bars.

Calella

Situated in Catalonia, just 50 kilometres north of Barcelona, Calella is a modern resort with lots of amenities, facilities and three kilometres of sandy beaches.

There is always something going on in Calella; for those looking for a busy and upbeat holiday, with lots of organised activities, then the resort is for you. Almost every month there is a fiesta, cultural event or other fun event. Calella is an ideal destination for families and those looking for a resort with everything on your doorstep. A huge selection of bars, restaurants and a vibrant nightlife is on offer. Head to the beach for a range of water sports and beach activities; during the summer there are lots of organized activities for children, plus dancing, parties and lots more.

There are plenty of amenities around Calella: supermarkets, souvenir shops, and lots of smaller local shops, medical centres, post office are available in this modern resort; in fact everything one would need to make their holiday stay comfortable and enjoyable.

During the summer months the town gets pretty busy, so if you are looking for a relaxed and traditional holiday resort, then Calella is perhaps not the right choice. The old Calella town is worth a visit, to find out about the history of the area and a stroll around the narrow, cobbled streets, taking in the ancient buildings. Here you can also find some more traditional tapas bars and restaurants.

L'Estartit

L'Estartit's position, between the mountains and the plain of the River Ter, gives it the dual advantages of 15 kilometres of beautiful rocky coastline together with one of the longest sandy beaches on the Costa Brava. Originally a small fishing village, a carefully managed development over a number of years, has created a charming small scale resort, which takes full advantage of its glorious coastal position and stunning scenery. The town has many good restaurants and bars where you can sample the traditional seafood and other dishes of the region. The international palate is also well catered for. Nightlife is fairly low key, although there are several places which cater for those who like to stay up late.

Malgrat de Mar

Malgrat de Mar is on the northern Barcelona coast, just 60 kilometres from the city of Barcelona. Its Mediterranean climate and more than 4.5 kilometres of spacious white sand beaches with every convenience invite you to spend a day by the sea.

You can find peace and quiet for walks and bird watching in natural spaces like the dunes of Playa de la Conca or the Tordera river delta. Malgrat de Mar is also surrounded by wilderness areas that are perfect for hiking or cycling. Take a stroll around the old town centre and find architectural sites like the 18th-century Church of Sant Nicolau or the late 19th-century Peixateries Velles (old fish market).

Nightlife in Malgrat is lively but not overwhelming. There are plenty of bars with music, live music, karaoke or entertainment. There are also plenty of restaurants along the seafront, and also in the old town especially around the town square.

Pineda de Mar

Pineda de Mar is a charming seaside resort set between Blanes and Calella. Pineda de Mar is a popular destination with a long, golden sandy beach, good selection of restaurants and bars, and surrounded by the beautiful Montnegre National Park. There is a good selection of shops, boutiques, bars and restaurants; the resort is very well equipped and ideal for families. The main beach of Pineda de Mar is a long stretch of golden sand, it is a peaceful beach, which even in the height of summer doesn't get overcrowded. The beach has been awarded with the European Blue Flag for cleanliness.

Scuba divers can take a trip out to the Medes Islands; a protected maritime area situated offshore, where the scuba diving is excellent. Pineda de Mar has an excellent selection of restaurants and tapas bars. The seafood choice is extensive and family run fish restaurants serve up delicious dishes at good value prices. There is also a choice of international cuisine in town.

The nightlife is very laidback and will suit families and those looking for a relaxing holiday. If you want to enjoy a more upbeat night out then you can visit the neighbouring resort of Lloret de Mar.

S'Agaró

Elegant S'Agaró sits alongside cosmopolitan Platja d'Aro, where a recognised circular route skirts the peaceful streets of the old town. Castell d'Aro is the historical centre, and has preserved all its medieval charm. The main town has many boutiques and makes a great shopping location. Nearby there are opportunities for hacking, hiking and running. The main beach is a long stretch of beautiful sand and there are many further sandy coves and rocky areas to explore.

Equipment and tuition for a variety of water-sports can be hired; plus there are diving schools.

Santa Susanna

Santa Susanna is an attractive resort, situated on a coastal strip often mistaken for the Costa Brava, just 64 kilometres from the city of Barcelona and with all of the wonderful beaches, bays and facilities of the Costa Brava nearby.

Its narrow cobbled streets still retain a medieval charm, and there are dotted ancient buildings and monuments, which each tell a tale.

There is a good selection of restaurants serving both local and international cuisine, and the nightlife is enjoyable with some great bars and pubs, suitable for families and couples.

The old town comprises of quaint narrow cobbled streets and historic buildings and monuments, yet head down to the seafront and you will be transported into modern living with a wealth of eateries, shops and water sports facilities.

Roses

Roses is an essentially Mediterranean town with a notable tourist and seafaring tradition. Located in a unique natural environment in the northern area of the Costa Brava, it is less than 30 km from the French border, 65 km from Girona and 160 km from Barcelona.

For walkers or mountain bikers there is the Aiguamolls nature reserve, a wonderful natural parkland and animal sanctuary stretching up from the coast to the Pyrenees Mountains.

The fantastic Water Fun Park of Aqua Brava in Roses is great for families, plus you can try your hand at skydiving, boating, sailing and karting are available.

Roses is near to some the most attractive and least crowded beaches of the Costa Brava. Just down the road, the vast stretch of beach runs all the way to historic Sant Martí de Empúries, which also has its own charming beach.

Málaga

The Gibralfaro castle casts a watchful eye over this warm-hearted and lively city full of attractive sites such as the Alameda Principal avenue and the La Farola seafront promenade. Its status as the capital of the Costa del Sol has made it one of Spain's foremost holiday destinations, thanks to its mild climate, its beaches and its outstanding offer of golf courses.

In the centre stands the Cathedral (16-18th century), also known as 'La Manquita' ('the one-armed') thanks to its unfinished right tower. Historic Málaga offers a whole host of typical sites and corners. These include the façade of the Town Hall, dating from the early 20th century, and the Plaza de la Merced square, presided by the monument to Torrijos and the site of the house in which the famous painter Pablo Ruiz Picasso was born. A walk around the old quarter has to include the busy streets of Pasaje de Chinitas and Calle Granada, the site of the Museum of Fine Arts, and the Calle Larios, the main thoroughfare in the historic centre.

The charm of the old quarters, the exquisite sierra light, the superb art collections and the vibrancy of the long, long night: these are a few of the attractions of Madrid, the capital of Spain.

Spain's capital city has plenty to offer visitors of all tastes and budgets. World-class art collections in the Museo Del Prado, Museo Thyssen-Bornemisza and Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía, Michelin-starred restaurants like El Club Allard and the designer shops of Salamanca cater for those who like the finer things in life. Then there are the historic cafés and bars around Plaza Santa Ana, the breath of fresh air that is the Parque Del Retiro and the city's vibrant nightlife, including the happening gay quarter of Chueca. The Plaza Dos de Mayo is a reminder of Madrid's turbulent past.

Strategically located in the geographic centre of the Iberian Peninsula at an altitude of 646m above sea level, Madrid has one of the most important historic centres of all the great European cities. This heritage merges seamlessly with the city's modern and convenient infrastructures, a wide-ranging offer of accommodation and services, and all the latest state-of-the-art technologies in audiovisual and communications media.

The historic centre, also known as the "Madrid of Los Austrias" (in reference to the Hapsburg monarchs), and the spectacular Plaza Mayor square – inaugurated in 1620 and one of the most popular and typical sites in Spain – are a living example of the nascent splendour of the city in the 16th and 17th centuries.

Art and culture play a key role in Madrid's cultural life. The capital has over 60 museums which cover every field of human knowledge. Highlights include the Prado Museum, one of the world's most important art galleries; the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum, with over 800 paintings ranging from primitive Flemish artists through to the avant-garde movements. And the Reina Sofía National Art Centre, dedicated to contemporary Spanish art and containing works by Picasso, Joan Miró, Salvador Dalí and Juan Gris, among others.

Madrid's extensive and beautifully maintained parks and gardens – like the Retiro park, formerly the recreational estate to the Spanish monarchs, the Casa de Campo and the Juan Carlos I park – offer inhabitants and visitors the chance to enjoy the sunshine, stroll, row on its lakes or feed the squirrels, in one of the greenest capitals in Europe.

But if there's one thing that sets Madrid apart, it must be its deep and infectious passion for life that finds its outlet in the friendly and open character of its inhabitants. Concerts, exhibitions, ballets, a select theatrical offering, the latest film releases, the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of the best Spanish and international gastronomy, to savour the charms of its bars and taverns ... all these are just a few of the leisure options on offer in Madrid. There is also a tempting array of shops and businesses featuring both traditional establishments and leading stores offering top brands and international labels.

Barcelona

Lying on the Mediterranean coast in north-east Spain, some 260km (160 miles) from France and a distance of 625km (390 miles) from Madrid, Barcelona is Spain's second-largest city and the capital of Catalonia. A vibrant, dynamic city, always on the move but passionately guarding its heritage, Barcelona offers everything from Gothic treasures and traditional dances to trendy bars, innovative architecture and gorgeous food. It is no surprise that emblematic constructions by the Catalan architects Antoni Gaudí and Lluís Domènech i Montaner have been declared World Heritage Sites by the UNESCO.

The city's origins are Roman, and its long history and economic dynamism have made Barcelona a cultural city, which can be seen in the historic-artistic heritage and the promotion of the most innovative artistic trends. A wide cultural programme will take visitors to museums, exhibitions, open-air sculptures... and many concerts, plays and dances.

Popular culture also has its manifestations in this city, which still conserves its most cherished traditions, like the fiestas of La Mercè or the festivities in the neighbourhoods of Gràcia, Sants and Poblenou. These are all exceptional opportunities for getting to know the city's more festive side.

Tradition and modernity can also be seen in its innovative and imaginative gastronomy, based on fresh garden produce, fresh fish, a wide variety of sausages and olive oil. Traditional handmade cakes and pastries and sparkling wines are some of the other highlights in this brief overview of Barcelona's gastronomic culture.

Strolling around the streets of Barcelona will bring surprises at every turn. Pedestrian streets in the old quarter, green spaces, and a splendid seafront with a range of modern facilities are a reflection of its multi-faceted character. Barcelona has cleverly succeeded in embracing its past without forgetting its commitment to the future. Its exceptional transport connections, the Mediterranean climate and the multitude of attractions for visitors make Barcelona one of the world's leading business cities

Bilbao

The Basque city of Bilbao is a spellbinding capital of design and gastronomy. With one of the world's finest buildings - the Guggenheim - at its heart, Bilbao dazzles with style and energy and boasts a unique identity as well as Europe's oldest and most enigmatic language. The city's big attraction is the Museo Guggenheim. This massive, futuristic structure, funded primarily by the Basque government, has become the symbol of Bilbao, its shimmering titanium roof rising dramatically beside the banks of the Nervión. The Museo de Bellas Artes (Fine Arts Museum) offers a rich array of Spanish classics – El Greco, Goya, and an honest 'warts and all' portrait of Felipe IV by Velázquez – as well as Flemish and Italian masterpieces. The museum's upper floor is devoted to Basque and international 20th-century art.

Valencia

Valencia is best known for its Las Fallas festival in March, its ceramics and its futuristic City of Arts and Sciences. Since 1982, the third largest city in Spain has been feverishly reinventing itself – laying out wide new avenues and investing in daring architectural projects. The cathedral was started in 1262 on the site of a Moorish mosque but it is a mix of styles, with most parts dating from the 14th–15th centuries. The Museo Nacional de Cerámica, housed in the astonishing Palacio del Marqués de Dos Aguas, is a gem of a museum and among its treasures it has hundreds of glorious glazed tiles (azulejos) for which the city is famous. The city's major art collection, at the Museo de Bellas Artes, has paintings by Bosch, El Greco, Goya and Velázquez, and a definitive collection of 15th century Valencian art.

Airport Parking

We have details of car parks at all our departure airports and would be happy to give you a quote for the duration of your holiday and make a booking for you.

Baggage

On many flights the baggage allowance has now been reduced to 15 kilos per person in the hold and between 5-10 kilos for hand luggage. Some low cost carriers now charge for taking luggage, priority boarding and check-in. Please check the restrictions of your chosen carrier at the time of booking. There is no allowance for infants – always check if you are unsure.

Banking

The Euro is the currency in Spain. Banks are open Monday to Friday 0900-1200 and 1400-1600. Cash machines are not widely available, but many hotels offer an exchange facility.

Beds

Beds and cots in accommodations do vary in size and comparison to the UK. Some doubles may be two adjoining single beds or Austrian twins. Child beds may be pull out or put you up beds, smaller than an average single bed.

Development in Resort

Resort development may be in progress and occasionally the work involved will result in building work being in evidence. We cannot forewarn of all developments, however, if the works taking place, either through noise or other inconvenience, is felt by us to affect your overall holiday enjoyment, we will supply all such information to you directly or via your travel agent. Many of our resorts are in popular holiday destinations which invariably have busy road networks so you may encounter some traffic disturbance especially during peak season.

Disabled Passengers

If you are disabled, please contact our reservations staff who will be able to suggest the most suitable accommodation according to your requirements and mobility. Collapsible wheelchairs are accepted on the flights, provided we receive notification.

Driving Abroad

You are required to drive on the right hand side. When travelling in your own car you must be in possession of a full valid driving license, vehicle registration document, proof of insurance, reflective jacket, warning triangle and GB sticker. When hiring a car you will be required to produce a valid driving license and credit card as a guarantee.

Electricity

Financial Protection

Your financial protection is ensured with ATOL Bonding no 6872. Our ABTA number is W6934.

Flight Delays and Timings

At the time of booking, the flight details are as instructed by the airlines, but could be subject to change by the CAA when the official time slots are issued. If changes do occur we will inform you straight away. Flight delays may occur for various reasons and are beyond our control.

Foreign Office Advice

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office issue updated information about your holiday destination. Should we be given any advice from FCO that could affect your holiday, we will inform you immediately. However you are advised to check this information on BBC2 Ceefax, on the internet at www.fco.gov.uk or by telephoning 020 7008 0232.

Health and Safety

All hoteliers are required to meet local health and safety standards and fire regulations. You should be aware that standards and regulations vary in different countries and may not compare to the generally higher standards set in UK establishments. Please ensure that you familiarise yourself with the emergency fire procedures within your chosen accommodation. Doctors and chemists are available locally and are advertised in daily newspapers or at the reception. We do recommend that clients obtain a DoH leaflet on Health of travellers and those under medication should ensure they take a plentiful supply and if possible, with a letter of confirmation from the doctor. Pregnancy Note: Air regulations state that women 28 weeks or more into pregnancy, at the time of return travel, must have a certificate of fitness to travel. Normally, after 32 weeks permission to travel is refused (check with insurers too).

Hotel Photographs

Many of our hotels have individually decorated and styled rooms, therefore the hotel room photographs are set as an example only.

Infants

Cots and highchairs are available in many hotels please request at the time of booking. In some cases a small local charge may be made for hire and linen.

Insurance

It is our company policy that clients traveling with us are required to insure against all holiday risks.

We recommend that you take with you an EHIC (European Health Insurance Card) which can be obtained through the Post Office or online at www.dh.gov.uk/travellers as this can help to lower excesses.

Languages

Spanish people prefer their mother tongue, although English is widely spoken and understood everywhere.

Passports & Visas

A full British passport, (valid for at least 6 months from return date) is required for all holidays in this brochure. At the time of going to press UK passport holders do not require a visa for our destinations. Holders of non UK passports should check with their travel agent or the relevant embassy or consulate. We cannot accept responsibility for passports and visas. We advise you to take with you the EHIC (European Health Insurance Card) obtainable through the Post Office or online at www.dh.gov.uk/travellers.

Pets

If you are travelling with a pet this must be advised at the time of booking and well in advance of travel. It is your responsibility to provide all the necessary documents and make all the arrangements to satisfy all legal requirements. Failure to do so will prevent your pet from being permitted to travel.

Special Requests

Special requests must be made at the time of booking for cots, highchairs, ground floors. These can only be requested and are not guaranteed.

Swimming Pools

Please note that there are strict rules for some accommodation and municipal swimming pools. Most pools are open from May to September. Most pools do not have a life guard, adult supervision is required. In Spain many hotels close their pool between 1300 and 1500 hours. Some pools regulations may require you to wear swimming cap.

YOUR CONTRACT IS WITH BRITALY TRAVEL LTD a Member of ABTA, Trading as TYPICALLY SPAIN.

1. Your Holiday Contract

You can make a booking with us through your local Independent Travel Agent. Once we know your requirements and have checked availability, we will tell you the up to date price of your chosen holiday. Before the booking is confirmed we reserve the right to increase or decrease the cost.

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. At this point we will issue you with a confirmation number and a contract will exist. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions, which are governed by English Law, and the jurisdiction of the English Courts. You may however, choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so. We will then send you a confirmation invoice verifying the details and prices of the holiday booked. Please check the details of the invoice carefully and contact us immediately if there is any discrepancy.

ALL HOLIDAYS AND OFFERS ADVERTISED IN THIS BROCHURE ARE SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY.

2. Your Financial Protection

When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong.

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

We provide full financial protection for our travel arrangements that do not include a flight by way of a bond held by ABTA The Travel Association.

3. ABTA

We are a Member of ABTA, membership number W6934. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of this contract. The scheme is arranged by ABTA and administered independently. It is a simple and inexpensive method of arbitration on documents alone with restricted liability on you for costs. The upper limit on claims is £5,000 per person and £25,000 per booking form. The scheme doesn't apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. It can however deal with claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,500 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element. Your request for arbitration must be received by ABTA within eighteen months of the date of return from holiday. For injury and illness claims, you can request the ABTA Mediation Procedure and we have the option to agree to mediation. Further information on the Code and ABTA's assistance in resolving disputes can be found on www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

- 1) We reserve the right to alter the prices of any of the holidays shown in our brochure. You will be advised of the current price of the holiday that you wish to book before your contract is confirmed.
- 2) When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £180.00 per person. Should the travel arrangements be on a low cost carrier or on a restricted saver ticket the payment for this part of your booking will be due for payment in full at time of booking (any cancellation or changes to ticketed flights will result in a full loss) and will alter the deposit due. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least 12 weeks before your departure date. If the deposit and/or balance is not paid in time, we shall cancel your travel arrangements. If the balance is not paid in time we shall retain your deposit. All monies you pay to the travel agent are held by him on our behalf at all times. Payments made directly to Britaly Travel Ltd made by MasterCard, Visa, American Express will incur an additional processing charge of 2%.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using exchange rates quoted in the Financial Times Guide to World Currencies on 15/08/2016 in relation to the following currencies: Euro 1.10

The Price Policy

The price of your travel arrangements may vary due to changes in transport costs, including the cost of fuel, scheduled airlines and other cost changes which are part of the contract between the airlines (and their agents) and the tour operator, taxes or fees chargeable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports and airports and exchange rates. Government action, such as VAT and other changes mean that the price of your travel arrangements may change after you have booked. However there will be no change within 30 days of your departure.

In the case of a small variation, an amount equivalent to 2% of the price of your travel arrangements, which excludes insurance premiums and any amendment charges will be absorbed or retained. You will be charged for the amount over and above that, plus an administration charge of £1.00 per person together with an amount to cover agent's commission. If this means that you have to pay an increase of more than 10% of the price of your travel arrangements, you will have the option of accepting a change to another holiday if we are able to offer one (if this is of equivalent or higher quality you will not have to pay more but if it is of lower quality you will be refunded the difference in price), or cancelling and receiving a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges.

We will consider an appropriate refund of insurance premiums paid if you can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy.

Should the price of your holiday go down due to the change mentioned above, by more than 2% of your holiday cost, then any refund due will be paid to you. However, please note that travel arrangements are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your travel due to contractual and other protection in place.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible. Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking or your travel agent. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £20.00 per person, per change, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date that changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible.

Note: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. flight tickets purchased from low cost carriers or restricted tickets) may not be changeable after a reservation has been made and any alteration request could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel your travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking or your travel agent on your behalf must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7.

Note: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

As we plan your holiday arrangements many months in advance we may occasionally have to make changes or cancel your booking and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Changes If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you or your travel agent as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value), or cancelling your holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In some cases we will also pay compensation (see below). These options don't apply for minor changes. Examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same or higher standard, changes of carriers. Please note that carriers such as airlines used in the brochure may be subject to change. Cancellation We will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 8 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. We may cancel your holiday before this date if, e.g., the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached. If your holiday is cancelled you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value). In some cases we will pay compensation (see below).

Compensation If we cancel or make a major change we will pay compensation as detailed below except where the major change or cancellation arises due to reasons of force majeure. The compensation that we offer does not exclude you from claiming more if you are entitled to do so.

YOUR CONTRACT IS WITH Britaly Travel Ltd, a member of ABTA, trading at Typically Spain.

If your complaint cannot be resolved, then you must contact our Emergency out of hours service (number can be found within travel documents) to inform us of any problems. Matters can most easily be resolved for you on the spot, when the supplier can see and understand the exact nature of any problems you have. It is unreasonable not to take any action whilst on holiday and then complain.

If you are still unsatisfied please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 8-10 London Road, Peterborough, PE2 8AR giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly recommended that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. Our Liability to You

If the contract we have with you is not performed or is improperly performed by us or our suppliers we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. However we will not be liable where any failure in the performance of the contract is due to: you; or a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel arrangements and where the failure is unforeseeable or unavoidable; or unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all due care had been exercised; or an event which we or our suppliers, even with all due care, could not foresee or forestall.

Our liability, except in cases involving death, injury and illness, shall be limited to a maximum of twice the cost of your travel arrangements. Our liability will also be limited in accordance with and/or in an identical manner to

- The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract; and

12. Your responsibility

We want all our customers to have an enjoyable holiday. Please remember that all clients are responsible for their own actions and the effect they may have on others. If we (other persons in authority) reasonably believe a customer's behaviour is disruptive or affects others, is threatening or abusive or is likely to damage property, we may end that customer's holiday. #### 13. The brochure

Description of the facilities provided at the hotels and all information are in good faith and every effort has been made to ensure their accuracy. However it is possible that hotels, restaurants and spas (over whom we have no control) may wish to change their facilities (e.g. pools may be closed for maintenance). In some cases the operation of air-conditioning or central heating is at the discretion of the management or the local laws.

There may be a charge for some facilities, for example TV's, safety deposit boxes, sun-loungers, parasols, tennis courts, pool tables and air-conditioning. In some places during high season (and even at other times) there is a possibility you will be disturbed by noise from less considerate groups, so please bear this in mind when choosing you destination and accommodation.

All distances provided in this brochure are approximate and may alter due to the route taken. Public holidays or religious festivals may also effect the operation of resort or hotel facilities.

14. Tourist tax

Many Spanish towns and cities have decided to introduce a Tourist Tax. All visitors must pay this tax. The tax is not included in the cost of the accommodation. It is an additional charge which must be paid directly to the hotel. The hotel will collect the tax on behalf of the local council. The rate of the tax varies from place to place. Please enquire for further details.

Typically Spain can only be booked through a travel agent, so please pop in to your local agent who will gladly help you get a quote and check availability.
