SPOTLIGHT ON THE SEYCHELLES ISLANDS

The scattered islands of the Seychelles glitter with the promise of pristine white sands, graceful granite peaks and coral reefs teeming with tropical fish. Tourism still treads lightly here, and these magical islands remain a sanctuary for both discerning luxury travellers and the Seychelles' spectacular wildlife.

Step ashore on islands such as Praslin and Cousin and you'll feel like you've travelled back in time, the forest alive with the calls of exotic birds and tiny tree frogs. On land, giant tortoises thrive in surprising numbers, while beneath the surface of the turquoise seas swim reef sharks, eagle rays and Hawksbill turtles. The Seychelles is also home to remarkable endemic flora, including the famous coco de mer, with its giant fruits that weigh up to 30 kilos.

In between exploring the islands you'll need somewhere to relax; luckily for you, the Seychelles is home to some of the world's most desirable resorts. From plush pool villas overlooking tranquil bays to beachfront cottages dotted around private islands, you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to selecting your perfect home away from home. Serene and secluded, exclusive yet authentic, the Seychelles is a place to reconnect with nature while enjoying the very best in luxury hospitality.

ANTIGUA

SAILING, SUNSHINE AND SUMMERTIME FUN

It's hard spending time apart from someone you love, and that's how we feel about Antigua - we can't wait to be back, soaking up the rays on one of the island's 365 gorgeous beaches. Our favourite hotels here are low key and low rise, giving you plenty of space in the sun, so this is a great destination to escape the crowds. Privacy and exclusivity are the watchword at hotels like Hermitage Bay and Carlisle Bay, while the stunning Jumby Bay is situated on its own private island. There's plenty of Caribbean countryside to explore, from sleepy villages and old sugar mills to lush tropical rainforest, and the warm turquoise waters just offshore are superb for snorkelling and scuba diving.

HERMITAGE BAY ANTIGUA

Why our Senior Travel Adviser, Karen, recommends Hermitage Bay

This adults-only luxury boutique hotel is a hidden gem, nestled into a lush green hillside and overlooking the stunning turquoise bay. The 30 luxurious suites are set amongst 17 acres of tropical gardens, and the Beachfront Suites are right on the beach with uninterrupted ocean views. The spacious hillside pool suites are ideal for romantically-minded couples with their own private pool and wrap around veranda, as well as outdoor showers overlooking the sea to give a real tropical feel. With the beautiful Garden Spa offering massages and treatments to rejuvenate guests, and exquisite cuisine incorporating freshly picked food from their organic garden, Hermitage Bay really is a perfect hideaway retreat for the mind, body and soul.

CARLISLE BAY
ANTIGUA

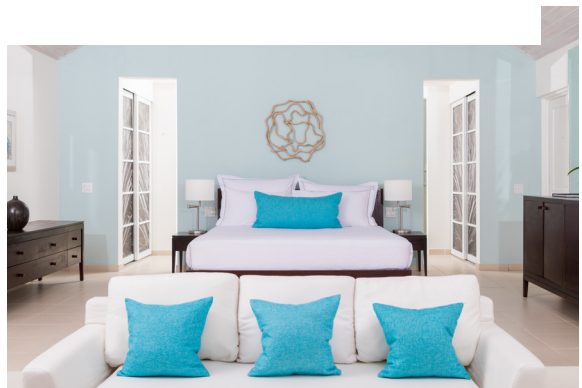

Why our Senior Travel Adviser, Mandy, recommends Carlisle Bay

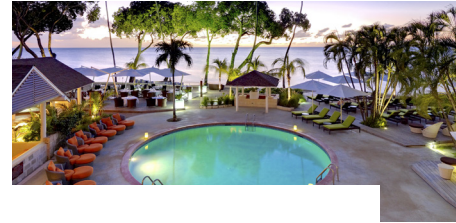

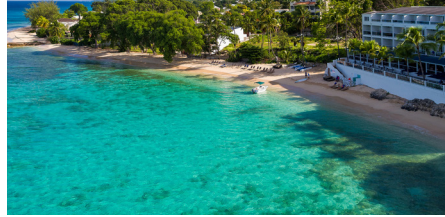

The resort offers the perfect balance of being luxurious and stylish, yet unpretentious and family-friendly, warmly welcoming guests of all ages. Tucked away on a secluded bay and surrounded by verdant rainforest, Carlisle Bay offers a completely idyllic setting separated into two distinct areas: one for families, one for adults. Half of the 500-metre beach is designed purely for families; Beach Balcony and Terrace Suites are based here and feature studio-style master bedrooms with direct views of the beach and separate twin rooms. Plus, for families staying in these suites on an all-inclusive basis, up to two children will receive complimentary all-inclusive.

During school holidays, the Cool Kids Club caters for children from 6 months up to 6 years of age, while the Crew Blue programme keeps 7 to 12-year-olds busy with everything from movie screenings to Hobie Cat sailing. Towards the end of the bay lie beautiful mangroves which are ideal for gentle kayaking trips, and older children in particular will enjoy the fun activities organised by the resort such as zip lining and raft building.

Couples are well looked after too with adult-only dining areas and accommodation. Plus the spa is highly recommended with an extensive menu of massages, body treatments and luxurious rituals to help you relax and rejuvenate.

For adults seeking the ultimate in rest and relaxation, we love the intimate boutique hideaway of The House and the "art-inspired" and all-suite Treasure Beach. Also, on the West Coast is the timeless elegance of Colony Club and, for those seeking a mind and body holiday, the all-inclusive wellness haven of The Waves Resort & Spa. To enjoy the best of Elegant, take the complimentary water taxi for exchange dining privileges across the hotels with the "Taste of Elegance Dine Around Programme."*

There are a range of stunning accommodation options to suit all with a plunge pool and butler service; the resort's luxurious collection of Residences are ideal for extended families with up to four bedrooms and a lovely sense of privacy and tranquillity. An authentic Caribbean getaway, this ever-popular adult-only all-inclusive resort is the perfect choice for honeymooners. Idyllic beachfront rooms and suites enhance the sense of romance that flows through Galley Bay, but for something truly special we recommend the supremely private Gauvain Suites, each with their own plunge pool. Set within 40 acres of lush gardens and along a three-quarter mile white-sand beach, there is plenty of space to find your piece of paradise and to enjoy the wealth of activities available. The latest addition to the resort, The Rum Shack, is the epitome of laid-back Caribbean charm and dining is a farm-to-table experience with three excellent open-air beachfront restaurants on offer, all with stunning views.

7 nights from £2,469 per person sharing a Deluxe Beachfront Room on All-Inclusive. OFFER: Save 15%.

HAMMOCK COVE ANTIGUA

Contemporary but unmistakably Caribbean, each of the 42 villas has a gorgeous infinity-edge plunge pool overlooking the turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea, and an open-air living and dining area bathed in sunshine. The hotel is fully all-inclusive and you'll be spoiled by the unfailingly efficient Guest Ambassadors, who are on hand to assist with restaurant bookings, in-villa dining, your morning coffee or just about anything else you can think of.

VICEROY RIVIERA MAYA MEXICO

Why our Private Sales Manager, Abi, recommends Viceroy Riviera Maya

You can truly escape when you stay at this adult-only boutique resort in the heart of the Riviera Maya. Fringed by rainforest and with a fabulous beachfront location, Viceroy Riviera Maya is a unique retreat. You'll be met on arrival by the resident Shaman who will perform a Mayan blessing, before being personally escorted to your villa by your butler. Each of the 41 luxurious villas have a furnished terrace, plunge pool, and outdoor shower to enjoy in seclusion. Discover complete relaxation and rejuvenation at the full-service spa. Recently upgraded, we love the new cabana lined pool deck and the authentic Mexican cuisine at al fresco Coral Restaurant + Bar.

7 nights from £1,979 per person sharing a Luxury Villa including breakfast. OFFER: US$150 Resort Credit.

EDEN ROC CAP CANA
DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Why our Private Sales Manager, Fiona, recommends Eden Roc Cap Cana

Eden Roc Cap Cana is a unique and secluded complex home to pristine beaches, towering cliffs and tropical forests and designed with the elegance and sophistication of the French Riviera with a colourful Caribbean twist. In my 20 years at Caribtours, I've stayed at some of the most luxurious hotels in the Caribbean, but I was still wowed by Eden Roc - the suites here are jaw-droppingly gorgeous and all come equipped with their own private pool. Eden Roc Cap Cana is the first Relais & Châteaux property in the Dominican Republic so you can expect superb dining and faultless service. Other highlights include a Jack Nicklaus golf course, a huge equestrian centre, and recently renovated luxury spa, where there is also a mini spa dedicated to pamper the younger guests.

7 nights from £2,579 per person sharing a Deluxe Beachfront Room including breakfast. OFFER: Stay 7 Pay 6.

MONTPELIER PLANTATION ST KITTS & NEVIS

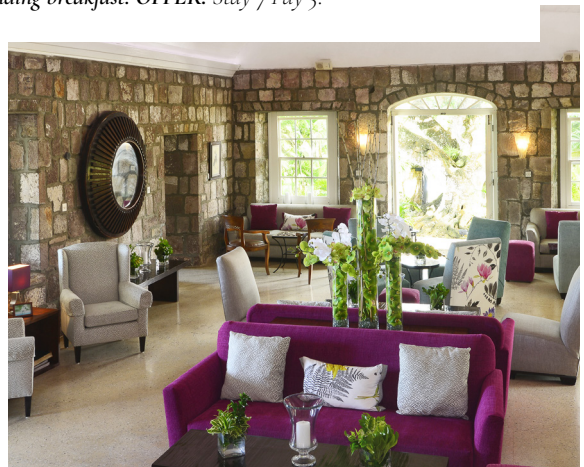

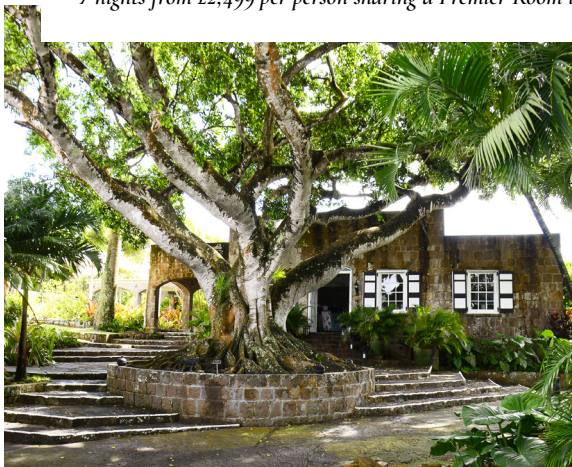

Why our Senior Travel Adviser, Sarah, recommends Montpelier Plantation

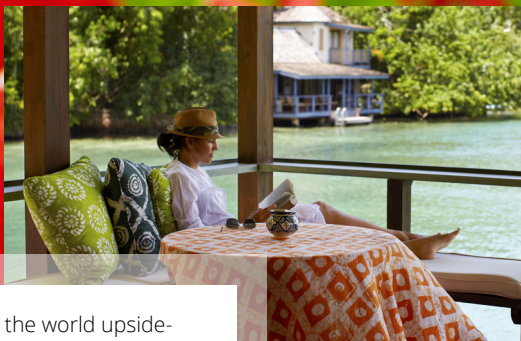

The beautifully-boutique Montpelier Plantation & Beach is one of the most atmospheric hotels in the Caribbean, retaining the character from its days as a former sugar plantation and complimented with chic and contemporary design. Set within 60 acres of lush tropical gardens, 750 feet up in the hills of Nevis, you can enjoy captivating views of Mount Nevis - especially from the beautiful mosaic-tiled swimming pool. The hotel's own private beach is just a short drive away via the complimentary shuttle bus, where you can relax on the cabanas or sip on cocktails at the beach bar. There are 19 elegant plantation rooms, each providing sumptuous linens, Egyptian cottons, and private verandas. Largely off the tourist track, Nevis itself is both tranquil and spectacular with its mix of bright blue seas, green mountains, and picture-perfect beaches.

I highly recommend experiencing the six-course tasting menu at Mil Privé the 300-year-old converted stone sugar mill, which is the only restaurant of its kind in the world. The dishes are out-of-this-world exceptional - rich lobster bisque, fresh tuna tartare and desserts that could be framed as artwork. The culinary adventures don't stop there with their two other restaurants, Restaurant 750 for gourmet creations, and Indigo for casual poolside dining. Cooking classes and demonstrations, plus wine and rum tasting, can also be enjoyed here.

7 nights from £2,499 per person sharing a Premier Room including breakfast. OFFER: Stay 7 Pay 5.

A SPOTLIGHT ON JAMAICA

It's a measure of the way 2020 turned the world upside-down that even James Bond was stopped in his tracks, but this year finally sees the release of No Time to Die, the third film in the franchise to feature Jamaica. A new James Bond tourist trail links together some of the island's most famous filming locations, and of course you can stay at the lovely GoldenEye, former home of Bond author Ian Fleming and one of Jamaica's coolest boutique hotels.

Jamaica is one of the biggest islands in the Caribbean, so a twin centre holiday is a great option. British Airways has recently launched a new twice weekly service to Montego Bay, in addition to their existing direct flight to Kingston. Why not combine the sublime beaches of Negril and the West End with the more exclusive north east coast around Port Antonio?

Jamaica is also a fabulous family destination, with some seriously high-end hotels catering to larger groups. Our long time favourites include the sophisticated Round Hill, with interiors by Ralph Lauren and a stunning collection of villas offering up to six bedrooms. Half Moon is another great family option, spread over 400 acres and flush with facilities including a championship golf course, equestrian centre, world class spa and the Anancy Children's Village.

JAMAICA INN JAMAICA

A timeless atmosphere, sense of understated elegance and the warmest of welcomes greet you at the iconic Jamaica Inn. Set on a stunning private, sandy cove, this charming boutique hotel has hosted the likes of Marilyn Monroe, Winston Churchill and Ian Fleming. A lot has changed over the years, but you'll find so many of the fabulous staff have been working there for decades and truly make each and every guest feel special. A particular favourite experience with guests is watching Hawksbill turtles hatch on Jamaica Inn's beach every summer with the staff who have set up their own turtle protection project. There are just 55 suites, cottages and bungalows, with suites offering an expansive furnished balcony or verandah providing fabulous open-air living rooms. With impeccable service, excellent dining, and stunning ocean views, you'll find this celebrated resort more than lives up to its glittering reputation.

7 nights from £1,599 per person sharing a Superior Balcony Suite on Room Only. OFFER: Save 30% + US$200 Food & Beverage Credit.

SANDY HAVEN JAMAICA

Set on Seven Mile Beach, Sandy Haven is ideally located to enjoy lazy days basking in the sun, with the excellent restaurants and vibrant nightlife of Negril all within walking distance. A medley of colourful artwork adorns the walls of this stylish and intimate boutique hotel, and the 33 spacious rooms and suites, all with private balcony or terrace, are decorated in a contemporary style with vibrant splashes of Caribbean colour. Hotel owner Ann Chen, along with her friendly team, delivers flawless service along with that easy-going Jamaican charm that makes the destination so popular.

7 nights from £1,379 per person sharing a Superior Room Garden View including Continental Breakfast. OFFER: Save up to 20% + Complimentary Room Upgrade.

We love the all-inclusive programme, known as Infinite Lifestyle, which ensures virtually every element of your holiday is included so you can totally relax and make the most of the exceptional facilities on offer. Experience Michelin-starred dining with a host of different cuisines, an extensive drinks menu including wines, cocktails and Champagne, or take advantage of the Dine Out option so you can explore the nearby towns and restaurants. To balance out a little overindulgence, take to the water, jump on a bike, battle it out on the tennis courts. Or just relax on the luxurious sunbeds at the 420-metre beach or one of the eight pools, or at the exceptional Ikos Spa by Anne Semonin Paris.

O2 BEACH CLUB & SPA, BY OCEAN HOTELS BARBADOS

Opening in June 2021, O2 Beach Club & Spa is set to light up the south coast of Barbados with a fresh twist on the luxury all-inclusive concept. Set on a gorgeous 1,000-foot stretch of powdery white sand, this is a cool and contemporary hotel with a relaxed beach club vibe. Facilities include three pools, two of which are strictly for adults, plus a full-service spa, gym and teen lounge.

Accommodation is divided into three distinct 'collections', some of which are swim-up, with options including the adults only Luxury Collection and the 'self-inclusive' Concierge Collection suites, which feature a fully-equipped designer kitchen and the choice to have a recipe box delivered to your suite if you'd rather dine in. The Concierge Collection also includes a range of unique 'learn to' experiences, including steel pan lessons, mixology classes and non-motorised watersports masterclasses.

There are six different dining venues at the hotel, including a casual beachside grill, a fine dining fusion restaurant and a stylish rooftop terrace, where you can tuck into tapas with amazing views of Oistins Bay. There are also seven bars, plus nightly entertainment while you peruse the cocktail menu. PRINCESA YAIZA SUITE HOTEL RESORT

Lanzarote, Spain

The Princesa Yaiza Suite Hotel Resort is rightly feted as Spain's most spectacular family resort, with an unparalleled array of facilities. The crowning glory is Kikoland, a 10,000-square-metre 'resort within a resort' where kids of all ages are kept busy throughout the day. There are cradles, bottle warmers and a baby pool for the tiniest tots; playgrounds and handicrafts for the slightly older ones; and the latest video games, DJ workshops and table tennis for those troublesome teens.

But what about the grown-ups? Fear not, because Princesa Yaiza has so much to offer, not least when it comes to dining in style. There are eight restaurants to choose from, running the gamut from classic buffet-style fare to elegant fine dining and showcasing cuisine from Spain, Italy, Japan and more. Top billing goes to the gourmet Isla de Lobos, one of the best restaurants in the whole of Lanzarote, where the chefs use fresh ingredients from local producers, fishermen and the Finca de Uga farm.

There are also plenty of spots to enjoy a drink, including the adults only Cocktails & Music Bar, 4 Lunas, where the music keeps playing till 3am. La Papaya is the place to grab a fresh juice the morning after, and you can work off any excess calories at the Adult Sports Centre, which offers personal training, group exercise classes and a sauna. For something more relaxing, book yourself in at the beachfront Thalasso Spa Centre, with 50 treatment rooms spread over 2,000 square metres and a tantalising menu of treatments grounded in the therapeutic properties of the sea.

The resort is pleasing on the eye, with a classic Canarian vibe, and is set on a sandy beach with views across to neighbouring Fuerteventura.
